COMMERCIAL CHAT.

The Elevator Fight—New Wheat—Profits of Traders—Gossip.
A. O. Grubb, formerly in the commission business here, but now located in Kansas, was on "Change to-day" looking for business. He is to be located in Kansas, and expects to place considerably more in that market. These oats go by the large line.

Werner & Dickman to-day auctioned off on "Change 90 shares Holman Hill and Mining Company of Mexico. The par value of the stock was $100, but it sold at the extravagant price of 35 cents a share, Chas. Cox buying the lot.

John Kaufman and Tom Carter, now on their way to Denver to do business, are carrying with them wheat and corn on the line of the Union Pacific in Kansas look magnificent, as also does "Katy," whoever that mysterious female is.

The first purchase of new wheat to come here has been closed by Buck, Dean & Co., they buying ten cars of the 1886 crop to arrive as soon as the wheat is ready for market. This wheat is from Illinois and will come in on the C. & O. road. The price paid was on basis of August wheat.

Letters and telegrams from sections South of St. Louis state that harvesting of wheat is not in full swing, and that the advance quiet but firm at small advances over opening figures. Just before 11 o'clock prices were again lifted and at 11 o'clock the market was quiet but firm at small advances over opening figures.

MONEY.
NEW YORK, June 4, 11 a. m.—There was a firm opening at the Stock Exchange this morning. The market was almost monopolized by the three grangers, Lake Shore & Lackawanna, Erie and Pennsylvania. The advance quiet but firm at small advances over opening figures. Just before 11 o'clock prices were again lifted and at 11 o'clock the market was quiet but firm at small advances over opening figures.

The orthodox congregations observe two days, commencing Tuesday evening and ending Thursday evening at sun-down. B'nai Amos Congregation, Rev. Adolf Streeter, rabbi. Evening services commence at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Confirmation services at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

Mr. E. G. Kraft will assist at the service of song this evening at the East St. Louis railroad men's reading room.

The railway Y. M. C. A. will hold a service of song next Tuesday evening at the M. E. Church, Eighth and Chouteau avenues. Miss Gertrude Jacobs and Mr. E. G. Kraft will have charge of the music.

The East St. Louis Railway Y. M. C. A. Senate gave a very interesting debate before a large audience at their rooms on Wednesday evening last. The question was: "Should women be granted the rights of suffrage?" Able speeches were made on the affirmative by Senators Alex. Fachel and McKinnis, and on the negative by Senators John Pollock and Milton Smith. The question having been put to the audience the affirmative was declared victorious by a small majority.

The usual meeting for railroad men and their families will be held at the East St. Louis Railway Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock.

Notes.

Dr. Nicolson of the Second Presbyterian Church is back in Paris.
